2. A Winter Morning

A winter morning is very cold and foggy. The fog is so thick that we cannot see things clearly from a long distance. Sometimes, we cannot even see things nearby. At that time, nature looks as if the sun has not risen yet. People wear warm clothes to protect themselves from the cold. Poor people suffer a lot on winter mornings because they do not have enough warm clothes. They shiver with cold. Usually, people wake up late and feel lazy because of the cold weather. Birds sing in the early morning, and everything looks calm and quiet. People enjoy winter mornings, especially because of the different kinds of delicious winter foods. As the sun rises higher in the sky, the fog slowly disappears and the cold becomes less severe. Then everything returns to normal.

3. Our National Flag

The national flag is a symbol of an independent country. Bangladesh is an independent country, and our nation has its own flag. In Bangla, we call it “potaka.” The length and width of our national flag are in the ratio of 10:6. The size of the flag can be changed according to need, but its ratio remains the same. We got our national flag through the Liberation War of 1971, which lasted for nine months. Many freedom fighters fought for our independence and sacrificed their lives. So, we should always respect them because we owe our freedom to their bravery and sacrifice. Our flag has a red circle in the middle of a green background. The red circle represents the rising sun and the blood shed by the freedom fighters. The green background represents the green fields and the natural beauty of Bangladesh. Our national flag is a symbol of our freedom, identity and pride. We should always respect it.
